

E N E R G Y
T W E N T Y O N E

Brought to you by:  GLOBAL CARBON EXCHANGE™

Carbon Footprint Analyst, Level 1 Course Outline

Course Dates: 7, 8 and 9 July 2010

Windhoek

DAY 1: WHY SHOULD WE MEASURE CARBON

1. What is Climate Change?

- Climate and weather
- What makes the climate change?
- How has the climate changed in the past?
- The greenhouse effect.
- Have people contributed to changing the climate?
- Is the globe warming?
- Climate change and the future
- What are the implications of global warming and climate change?

2. The Carbon Markets: An Introduction

- The history of carbon markets and the Kyoto Protocol
- The Clean Development Mechanism
- The Mandatory Market
- The Voluntary Market
- The state of Carbon Markets

DAY 2: HOW DO WE MEASURE CARBON

1. What is a Carbon Footprint?
2. Why do a Carbon Footprint?
3. Planning to undertake a Carbon Footprint?
4. What are the Standards for Carbon Footprinting?
5. What tools are available to undertake a footprint?
6. How to undertake a Carbon Footprint for a business:

- Step 1: Setting boundaries
- Step 2: Collecting data
- Step 3: Data analysis

7. Quality control and Verification
8. Reporting and Disclosure
9. South African Legislation

DAY 3: DOING THE FOOTPRINT

1. Practical Example via case study

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH:

E N E R G Y
T W E N T Y O N E

Brought to you by:  GLOBAL CARBON
EXCHANGE™

Carbon Footprint Analyst, Level 1 Course Outline

Course Dates: 7, 8 and 9 July 2010

Windhoek

WHO SHOULD DO THIS COURSE?

1. Individuals looking at a new career in carbon consulting
2. Leaders within organisation heading up the "green team"
3. Sustainability employees
4. Entrepreneurs in green business
5. Business owners or staff with organisations who like to add carbon awareness or low carbon strategies to their offering

BENEFITS

1. Add value to your company
2. Explore this fast growing market
3. Adapt with Climate Change
4. Adapt to changing economic climate
5. Embark on a new career
6. Enhance your skills
7. Learn how to conduct carbon footprints

To REGISTER ONLINE, visit us at:
www.gawaisgreen.org or see the attached registration form.

For more information contact Anna Shevel at:
anna@globalcarbonexchange.com or

Jacques Loftus at +264 81 228 3582